

Ethical will of: _____

Date: _____

The person writing this ethical will/ethical legacy is:

1. Your hope for your family:

2. Hope for Humanity:

3. What you are grateful for:

a) family

b) health

c) opportunities

d) that God is in my life

e) for the lessons taught to me

f) for my friends

g) for my teachers

h) for the people that love and care for me

4. The important things you learned from your grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins other relatives

5. I have learned the following from my friends:

6. The importance of family traditions and rituals

7. Your opinions and beliefs on:

a) politics

b) history

c) our culture

d) our country

e) economy

f) racism

g) injustice

h) world hunger

i) aging

j) religious intolerance

k) war

8. Laughter and joy in my life has allowed me to:

9. What values do you want to transmit to your children/grandchildren?

10. What life lessons do you want your children/grandchildren to know about you?

11. What wisdom do you want to share with your children/grandchildren?

12. Who do you want to forgive? Why?
What have you learned about forgiving?

13. What is your relationship with the Divine?
Where has your spiritual journey taken you?
How has your spirituality shaped you?

14. What has been your life passion?
What did you enjoy about your work?
How did you end up in your career?
What would you have done differently?

15. What are the precious, personal possessions you received from family or on your own?

What do they mean to you?

16. What special/unique ways did you celebrate holidays, life cycle events?

17. These are my achievements and what they mean to me:

18. These were my setbacks and how I overcame them:

19. My educational history consisted of:

20. As a child—I wanted to be a:

21. There were certain holidays we celebrated in a special way—such as: